4.0 PAB BOARD MEMBERS' REPORTS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

4.1 Board Members
Val Morris addressed that we are at distance learning, and there isn't any special education on school campuses. We are looking forward for students returning to campus. We are also looking forward being able to receive vaccinations as set up by Michelle Murphy
Karla Kellems attended an introductory LCAP meeting and is looking forward to be able to help with

LCAP by collaborating findings and statistics. We need updated numbers, which are not current due to COVID. East Valley Community Advisory Committee has not had a meeting since our last Parent Advisory Board Meeting.

4.2 Superintendent Michelle Murphy, Superintendent
We are currently working on receiving vaccinations for the employees and obtaining a list of who would like to receive one. Funding is being provided to the schools as part of Governor Newsom's reopening plan and our 51- page application is due February 1, 2021. Tri State Healthcare is offering COVID testing to our Community two days a month. One day will be set aside for RIMUSD employees and their family members. The other day will be for the community. We will continue to monitor the impact of the lack of capacity at Mountains Community Hospital regarding beds and oxygen. Our desire is to keep staff and students safe.

5.0 REPORTS AND PRESENTATIONS

5.1 Special Education Update Derek Swem, Director of Special Services
Derek Swem presented a power point on our Special Education Plan. He also discussed targeted marketing.

5.2 Online Support Ideas for Special Education Families Derek Swem, Director of Special Services
We have available online websites to assist struggling students which are available and posted on our Rim of the World USD Website. They are Kahn Academy, Think Central, Virtual Job Shadow, and PBS for students and families.
